

Summer Reading List for Incoming Third Years

All incoming third year students are required to read a total of four books; two non-fiction and two fictional books.

Fiction: Choose two.

- Any book from the Ramona series by Beverly Cleary
- Any book from the American Girls series
- How to Eat Fried Worms by Thomas Rockwell
- Freckle Juice by Judy Blume
- The Earth is Painted Green edited by Barbara Brenner
- The Catwing series by Ursula LeGuin
- James and the Giant Peach by Roald Dahl
- A Snake in the House by Faith McNulty
- Indian in the Cupboard by Lynn Reid Banks
- Sadako and the Thousand Paper Cranes by Eleanor Coerr
- The Hobbit by J.R.R. Tolkien
- Chronicles of Narnia series by C.S. Lewis
- Any book by Marguerite Henry
- Any book by Roald Dahl
- Any book from the My Name is America series
- Any book from the Dear America series
- Any book from the Magic Tree House series
- Any book from the Animal Ark series
- Any book from the Junie B. Jones series
- Any book by Scott O'Dell

Non-Fiction: Choose two.

- Any book from the New True Science series
- Any book from the Eyewitness or Junior Eyewitness series
- Any book from the Rookie Biography series
- Any book from the Magic School Bus series
- Any book from the If You Lived in the Time of the _____, history books
- Any book from the First Discovery series
- Any book from the In Her Own Words series

